ST. LOUIS SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA ANNOUNCES RETURN OF HAPPY HOUR
CONCERTS AND YOUNG FRIENDS PROGRAM TO 2025/26 SEASON

Updates include:

Details for Playlist: Symphony Happy Hour, hourlong Thursday evening concerts designed to introduce orchestral music in a casual and engaging environment

Details for Young Friends, a curated subscription package for ages 21-45 with a variety of concerts

Subscriptions and subscription add-ons available now, single tickets available July 22

(July 8, 2025, St. Louis, MO) – Today, the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra (SLSO) announced additional programming for its 2025/26 season, the orchestra's 146th and seventh with Music Director Stéphane Denève. In addition to previously announced classical and holiday concerts, the 25/26 season includes concerts designed for young adults and those seeking new ways to experience symphonic music.

Updates include:

- Revival of Playlist Happy Hour concerts: hourlong Thursday early evening events
- Details for Young Friends, a curated concert package for adults ages 21-45

All concerts will take place at the Jack C. Taylor Music Center (718 N. Grand Blvd.), which will reopen in September 2025 following a two-year expansion and renovation of Powell Hall, the orchestra's home since 1968. The transformed venue, designed by acclaimed architecture firm Snøhetta, better serves audiences and artists by improving all aspects of the visitor experience, from improved safety and accessibility measures to added amenities on all levels, and a renovation of the internationally recognized concert hall.

Curated and Compose Your Own subscription packages are available now at slso.org. Single tickets for all concerts will go on sale July 22. Additional concert details for the 25/26 season, including new specials, chamber music concerts, and recitals, will be announced later.

NEWLY ANNOUNCED—Playlist: Symphony Happy Hour

Playlist concerts invite audiences—from lifelong symphony enthusiasts to first-time guests—to connect with music in a way that's enlightening and inspiring. At these Thursday night happy hour concerts, guests can unwind with signature cocktails and mocktails, enjoy insights from the conductor, and mingle with musicians. Designed to inspire, relax, and get the conversation going, Playlist offers three concerts centered on landmark pieces and remarkable composers.

Mahler's Fifth (April 10, 2026)

Mahler's magnificent Fifth Symphony, with its tremendous emotional scope, rings through Powell Hall alongside a concerto by two string virtuosos, violinist Hilary Hahn and cellist Seth Parker Woods.

About the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra

Celebrated as one of today's most exciting and enduring orchestras, the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra is the second-oldest orchestra in the country, marking its 146th year with the 2025/26 season and its seventh with Stéphane Denève, The Joseph and Emily Rauh Pulitzer Music Director. Widely considered one of the leading American orchestras, the Grammy® Award-winning SLSO maintains its commitment to artistic excellence, educational impact, and community collaborations—all in service to its mission of enriching lives through the power of music. The transformational project that expands and renovates the orchestra's historic home, Powell Hall—designed by Snøhetta and creating the Jack C. Taylor Music Center—will be completed in September 2025. This milestone builds on the institution's momentum as a civic leader in convening individuals, creators, and ideas, while fostering a culture welcoming to all.
