“Past generations have endowed St. Louis with a world-class symphony. We want to ensure the next generation has the same experiences that we’ve had.”

— Legacy Circle Member

LEGACY CIRCLE

ST. LOUIS
SYMPHONY

STÉPHANE DENÈVE, MUSIC DIRECTOR

Ensure the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra inspires for generations to come.

A planned gift is a simple, meaningful way to champion the SLSO. When you include the orchestra in your will, trust, or beneficiary plans, your passion for music endures—helping secure a bright future for orchestral artistry in St. Louis.

A planned gift allows you to:

- Make a lasting difference beyond your annual support
- Potentially reduce taxes for your estate and heirs
- Care for your loved ones while sustaining the music that matters to you

WAYS TO GIVE

Planned gifts come in many forms and can be tailored to your goals and financial plans. Common options include:

- Bequest in a will or trust
- Beneficiary designation on a retirement, bank, or insurance account
- Life income gift, such as a charitable gift annuity or charitable remainder trust
- Other assets, including real estate or appreciated securities

LEGACY CIRCLE BENEFITS

The Legacy Circle honors donors who have included the SLSO in their long-term plans. Members receive:

- Access to the William T. Kemper Lounge before concerts and during intermission
- Invitations to special events, including Legacy Circle-only gatherings
- Opportunities to meet musicians, guest artists, and conductors
- Recognition in Playbill and on the Wall of Honor

If you've already included the SLSO in your plans, please let us know so we can thank you and celebrate your generosity.
