Arriving by Bus

Arrival and Unloading

Approach Route: Please approach the Jack C. Taylor Music Center from Grand Blvd., then turn east onto Delmar Blvd.

Unloading Location and Safety Protocol: Buses will unload on the south side of Delmar Blvd., next to the music center. If a line of buses forms on Grand Blvd., please remain in the line and wait to unload until asked to do so by an SLSO representative. This helps ensure a safe and efficient arrival for all groups.

Bus Number Assignment: When your bus reaches the unloading zone, an SLSO representative will greet your group and provide you with a bus number. Please keep track of this number—it will help you locate your bus after the concert.

Bus Parking: After unloading, drivers will be directed to immediately park in the Samuel Shepard parking lot, where buses should remain until the end of the concert.

Entering the Music Center: Your bus greeter will direct you to the correct entrance, where an usher will be waiting to help you find your seats. You are strongly encouraged to find your seats in the auditorium before visiting restrooms.

Dismissal

Dismissal Procedure: At the conclusion of the concert, please wait to be dismissed by SLSO ushers. The auditorium will be dismissed by section to help avoid congestion.

Finding Your Bus: As you exit, ushers will distribute maps of the parking lot. Use your bus number to locate your bus on the map. Once in the parking lot, SLSO representatives will help guide your group to the correct bus.
