

Educational Impact

The St. Louis Symphony Orchestra is dedicated to making music education accessible to all students and teachers in St. Louis and around the world. A leader in music education since 1921, the SLSO offers a broad portfolio of free, educator-informed programs and resources designed to empower music educators and inspire student engagement with music.

200,000+ students and 1,000+ teachers experienced the SLSO's education programs

950+ schools participated in education activities

6,700+ free tickets to education concerts provided to schools demonstrating financial need

110+ Youth Orchestra musicians performed 3 concerts

10 student musicians coached through Peer to Peer

875+ students interacted with SLSO musicians in their classrooms

350+ teachers participated in professional development workshops, in turn, impacting 58,000+ students

Students and teachers in 44 states and 9 countries connected with SLSO education programs

SLSO Education Programs are presented by

And sponsored by Dana Brown Charitable Trust, U.S. Bank, Trustee and U.S. Bank

New This Season

Unpacked: an interactive performance at Powell Hall designed for high school students, featuring multimedia, storytelling, and commentary from the stage

Express the Music: an in-school program that invites students to listen to music and respond creatively through writing, visual art, or podcasting, reimagined to expand the ways students can participate

slso.org/education

25
/ 26
146th Season